The Guild for Human Services, Inc.
Strategic Operating Plan, FY19-21

Founded in 1953, The Guild for Human Services, Inc. (The Guild) is a private, nonprofit organization with the mission to assist individuals with intellectual disabilities to achieve their full potential to lead high quality lives and participate meaningfully in society. In addition to intellectual disability, individuals served by The Guild’s residential and special education programs experience concomitant diagnoses of visual impairments, emotional and behavioral disorders, hearing impairments, communication disorders, pervasive mental health needs, Autism Spectrum Disorder, seizure disorders, traumatic brain injury, genetic syndromes, and varied neurological impairments.

In the last decade, The Guild has undergone tremendous growth, including a 28 percent increase in student enrollment at The Guild School as well as the reestablishment of adult residential programming. The result has been a surge in new staffing, purchase of new facilities, and significant alterations to work flow across the agency. The increasingly diverse and complex needs presented by The Guild’s service population and the expansion of services require personnel to adapt continuously while remaining committed to providing engaging, data-informed, innovative services that enhance the quality of life among all individuals. These changes also resulted in a higher level of staff turnover than previously experienced and a silo effect among divisions of the organization.

In addition, The Guild has experienced a leadership transition across the executive team, including the retirement of the former Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and introduction of a new CEO. Not only has the leadership personnel changed; but, the leadership approach has been altered from transactional leadership to a collective leadership style. These changes have placed stress on supervisors, middle managers, and senior leadership to provide coherent policies, practices, and models that support and honor all staff during a time of rapid growth as well as to continue the high quality service delivery for which The Guild is known. Amid all of these changes, The Guild remains under pressure to develop coherent public messages that resonate with educational placement seekers, Guild community members, professional associations, and broader audiences who may be inclined to make charitable contributions.

Thus, the following three-year Strategic Operating Plan is designed to address The Guild’s challenges and opportunities through the following goal areas:

1. Lead: Engage stakeholders in the transition to collective leadership.
2. Support: Improve operational infrastructure to support efficiency.
3. Connect: Communicate The Guild’s mission and services beyond our community.
4. Serve: Reinvigorate services for our increased scope of individuals.
5. Include: Elevate the voice, choice, and access of individuals served by The Guild.

CONNECT

In addition to maintaining the successful direct marketing strategy for the school program, which has placed The Guild School in the desirable position of receiving a higher number of student referrals than there are vacancies, The Guild for Human Services will launch an indirect marketing strategy and a public relations campaign that will reach multiple audiences, including the broader community.

CONNECT GOAL 1: Build and launch a new website that will anchor The Guild’s indirect marketing strategy and complement the public relations campaign.

1.1 Connect Strategic Objective: Ensure that the new website is accessible to individuals with visual impairments by making it ADA compliant with the most up-to-date Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG), which is expected to be WCAG 2.1 AA when the website launches.
